A Word of Devotion: “IMMANUEL,” GOD WITH US

By: Dr. Kevin Burris
Toccoa Falls College

‘...and they shall call his name Immanuel’
-Matthew 120-25

The approach of Christmas brings back a rush of memories from various stages of life that make me pause in my thoughts and almost feel the warmth of cherished times with those I love. For some reason, I usually think first of one Christmas when we were very poor, but my parents went beyond my wildest expectations to buy me an entire set of G.I. Joe toys and accessories. I also think of the first Christmas I spent with my wife and the first Christmas that we hosted the extended family at our own house. I remember so clearly the joy of watching my children anticipate Christmas, open presents, and play in the midst of a pile of boxes and wrapping paper.

However, sometimes, Christmas memories are difficult. One Christmas was spent partially in the hospital due to an unexpected surgery. Other Christmases have been the first ones spent without a loved one who had passed away. As I look forward to the coming Christmas season, feelings of sadness and even foreboding come upon me since my father has been very sick and will be unable to be home with my mother for the first time in over 50 years. I know things will be different and dread the pain this will cause my mother.

Whether the season brings excitement or sadness in our personal lives, I find myself often forgetting the words of the angel to Joseph and the powerful declaration of "Immanuel," God is with us. The angel's declaration is taken from Isaiah who lived in a time of spiritual impoverishment among God's people and prophesied about coming times of defeat and exile. The declaration is to Joseph, a poor carpenter, who lived in a time of Roman rule and who is experiencing the pain and doubt of finding his intended wife to be pregnant with a child that was not his own. In contrast to their dark times, Isaiah and Joseph are assured that God is with them. Despite his messages of doom, Isaiah makes some of the most memorable predictions of the Messiah's birth (7:14; 9:6-7), crucifixion (52:13-52:12), and second coming to set up an eternal kingdom (65-66)! Despite Joseph's humble life in a troubled time, he was Jesus' earthly father, experiencing the fulfillment of so much Scripture as he shared intimate times of life and fellowship with God incarnate in the baby and young boy Jesus!

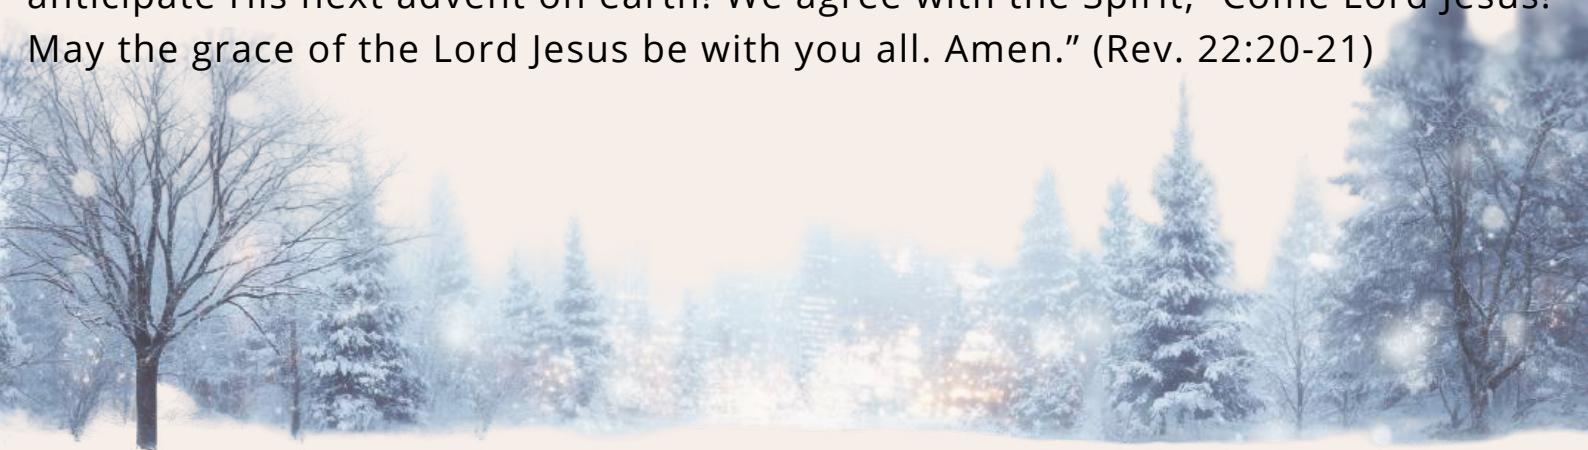

For some reason it is so easy to see how God was with Old Testament saints like Isaiah and how Jesus was physically present with Joseph, Mary, and the disciples, but sometimes so difficult to understand how He is with us today. How do we incorporate the concept of Immanuel into our Christmas thinking? How do we prepare ourselves to fully experience God's presence in the season in which we should most naturally celebrate the advent of Jesus into this world?

I find three simple practices to be extremely helpful in preparing oneself to experience God's presence more deeply during the Christmas season. First, establish or step into Christian rituals before Christmas. Traditional ways of preparing for Christmas such as advent calendars and regular Scripture readings have been used for centuries and allow us to participate with believers worldwide as we remember Christ's birth. Add to these your own traditions that go beyond basic gift-giving and focus on the reason for giving. Even small touches like adding a Christmas game that promotes fellowship and thankfulness allow us to better experience God's presence.

Second, set aside times each day to look to Christ's second coming. I have often neglected this in the Christmas season, but His first coming is always reminding us that He's coming again. This simple exercise will encourage you with hope, even if your Christmas situation this year may be less than you'd hoped. It will also spur you to think about those around you who do not know Christ and encourage you to make connections between Christmas and the soon coming return of the Savior.

Finally, live your life in a way that reflects the truth that Immanuel, God with us, is an ongoing reality if we have the Holy Spirit living within us today. God is always with us as the Holy Spirit warms our hearts with previous Christmas memories or comforts our hearts during Christmases that may be particularly difficult. The Holy Spirit proves to be "God with us" as our hearts take joy in Christmas carols and advent readings. The Holy Spirit is "God with us" as we take care and thought into buying and receiving presents for those we love and for those we don't know. Indeed, the Holy Spirit is "God with us" in exactly the same way that He was with Jesus as He grew from an infant to adulthood – empowering, leading, teaching, comforting, and confirming the will of the Father each moment of our existence!

May God be with each of you and your families this Christmas season as you prepare to celebrate Jesus' birth so long ago! May He also be with you as you anticipate His next advent on earth! We agree with the Spirit, "Come Lord Jesus! May the grace of the Lord Jesus be with you all. Amen." (Rev. 22:20-21)

Meet our Missions

Samburu Friends Mission

The Samburu people are nomadic pastoralists who keep cattle, sheep, goats, camels, and donkeys. Recently, huge swaths of collectively-held range land in the Samburu region have been privatized, leading to extreme disruption of grazing and migration patterns. This, in turn, has led to an increase in violent conflict with neighboring communities. Education and literacy training for the Samburu are crucial at this time, as capable leadership is needed in negotiating these conflicts, and only 6% of Samburu adults have a secondary school education.

Building the Friends Church in Samburu involves building communities, not building buildings. As early Friends knew, it is the body of Christ that matters, not the building in which Christ is housed. Worship is often shared under a tree with indigenous songs, spirited dancing, and readings from the Bible.

Excerpts from: Some Fruits of SOLITUDE

Proverbs, Wisdom & Principles for Better Living

By: William Penn

Quotes on "Religion":

473- "Public worship is very commendable, if well performed. We owe it to God and good example. But we must know, that God is not tied to time or place, who is every where at the same time: and this we shall know, as far as we are capable, if we wherever we are, our desires are to be with him."

474- "Serving God, people generally confine to the acts of public and private worship: and those, the more zealous do offer repeat, in hopes of acceptance."

475- "But if we consider that God is an infinite spirit, and as such, everywhere; and that our Savior has taught us, that he will be worshiped in spirit and in truth; we shall see the shortness of such a notion"

476- "For serving God concerns the frame of our spirits, in the whole course of our lives; in every occasion we have, in which we may show our love to his law."

Quaker Query

...for December

What is a "Quaker Query"?

Quakers use the term Query to refer to a question or series of questions used for reflection and in spiritual exercises. Friends have used Queries as tools for offering spiritual challenges to the community for much of their history.

Consider this...

Do you guard against covetousness, remembering that the quality of life does not depend on the abundance of possessions? Do you seek to discern how much of your time, talents and resources you should devote to the service of others?

Comm-Tech Committee Statement

Hello from your FCNC Comm-Tech Committee!

Many members within FCNC are still unaware that we have a newsletter!

The best way for Friends to stay up to date and aware of news & events is to get connected.

There are 3 great ways to do that:

- 1) subscribe to Bearing Fruit (click HERE)
- 2) follow FCNC's Facebook Page (click HERE)
- 3) join FCNC's Facebook group (click HERE)

Social Media isn't for everyone, and we completely understand, so that's where "Bearing Fruit" is a great option.

But what about those in our Meetings who still haven't heard about or seen the newsletter?

That's where YOU come in!

Pastors, announce to your congregations on Sundays.

Friends, ask your friends if they've seen the newsletter.

Committee leaders, consider printing off copies to hand out to those who are less likely to use technology.

Together, we can get the word out! Thank you for your help
