Annual Gathering Saturday September 13, 2025 Deep River Friends Meeting

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Sherry Hylton

“Rivers do not drink their own water; trees do not eat their own fruit; the sun does not shine on itself, and flowers do not spread their fragrance for themselves. Living for others is a rule of nature. We are all born to help each other. No matter how difficult it is. . . Life is good when you are happy; but much better when others are happy because of you.”

Pope Francis

I must admit that I am no expert on the late Pope Francis, but I saw this quote last week, and I had to take a screenshot. Does it not seem to you like an extension of the second most important commandment God gave us? John 13:34&35; “A new command I give you; Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples. If you love one another.”

In today's world, we see a lot of shirts and signs that say, “be kind”, but are we REALLY reading this and obeying? If I'm honest, I'll have to admit that I think I may be turning into an old, grumpy woman. My patience seems to be in short supply lately. Last week Tommy and I went to 10 baseball games!!!! If you want to test your patience, go to a ballfield and watch your child or grandchild play ball. Things are different today than they were when my kids were little and participating in sports. I mean, where will they put all these professional ball players when they reach the MLB level?!! See, grumpy old lady!!! What I am trying to say here, is that we have got to lessen our focus on ourselves, and ours, and see the people in the world around us. Develop and experience “empathy”. Webster defines empathy as the ability to understand and share the feelings of others. This is a big deal to me. I think that maybe, having been an elementary school teacher for over half of my life, I had to experience empathy, or I would not have been able to touch those children's lives as I hope I did. When you experience empathy, you want to reach out and do whatever you can to make that person happy and their life better. We all have gifts from God, and he is begging us to use them.

I must take this time to say to you, that I have the honor of serving on a Board of women, NC USFW, that are ALL perfect examples of Pope Francis' words. Not only is it the women on the Board, but every single one of you. We just had our Spring Conference at QLC this past Saturday, and the love of God, and the kindness He has placed in us, was displayed in so many ways. The music that Ginger Holt shared with us brought pure joy to all, because "How Beautiful" it was, but her testimony was even more beautiful. Georgianne Hartline shared a devotion with such conviction and enthusiasm, that we all were lifted by it. Jane and Max Carter shared with us about their experiences in Palestine. I want to know more, because it is difficult for me to understand that situation, but I do know now, that the people there need us.

All of the missions that we, the women of NCUSFW, give to throughout the year, need us. I truly thank you for your gifts to these missions. I urge you all to spread the news in your Meetings about the things we are doing. All of the things we do locally are so incredible, and I know the lists we place in our Directories are only a small part of what we do. But never forget, we are ALL God's children. He created the entire world, and everyone in it. We have a responsibility to God our Father. Please join me as we continue to spread our God given gifts, to the world.

Reminders:

-We are now collecting L, H, and B ($1 bills)! This year we will be collecting dollars to go toward Sleep in Heavenly Peace, which builds beds for children who are sleeping on the floor. David Millikan heads a chapter in Randolph County, NC.

-When registration forms for our Annual Gathering come out, please send them in and plan to join us. It will be on Saturday, September 13 at Deep River Friends Meeting

Thank you for sending me your pictures for the Spring Conference slideshow! It was great to see what ladies from all around NC have been doing in your meetings and communities. Lindsay Shore Wright

SCHOLARSHIP

Bennie Burton

The USFW-NC Eliza Armstrong Cox Scholarship committee met in April and 12 applicants were approved to receive the 2025-2026 scholarships. The selection committee included Alicia Sharp, USFW-NC Treasurer, Lee Van Hughes, Pat Davis, and Bennie Burton.

The six new applicants, or first-time applicants, will receive $300 each for the 2025-2026 school year. The applicants were Cora Sparrow from Bethel Friends, Haley Hinshaw from Marlboro Friends, Avery Wright from Centre Friends, Seth Varner from Archdale Friends, Claire McCain from Cedar Square, and Robert Isaac Simmons from Springfield Friends Meeting.

The six returning applicants will receive $450 each. The returning applicants were Haley Quate from Deep Creek Friends, Sadie Badgett from White Plains Friends, Hunter Hall from Forbush Friends, Olivia Ray from Deep Creek Friends, Rachel Wilcox from Somerton Friends, and Maggie Ray from Deep Creek Friends Meeting.

The total money granted this year for the 12 applicants will be $4500. The amount of money granted each year, depends on the money available and the number of applicants approved to receive the scholarship.

For 2025-2026, the committee also approved $1500 for the International Scholarship for Friends Theological College.

It was heartwarming to read the academic accomplishments of these young people, their spiritual growth and their involvement in their meetings.

Thank you to all the USFW groups in North Carolina that continue to fund this scholarship.

Donations of appreciation, memorials, honorariums, etc., can be ways to replenish the funds of the Eliza Armstrong Cox Scholarship. The Eliza Armstrong Cox Lifetime Fellowship memberships is also a way to honor the namesake of this scholarship.

ELIZA ARMSTRONG COX LIFETIME FELLOWSHIP MEMBER

The Eliza Armstrong Cox Lifetime Fellowship membership is an honor and a recognition for service and dedication to the meeting and NC USFW. Circles submit $25 per nomination, ($12.50 goes to USFWI and $12.50 goes to the Eliza Armstrong Cox Scholarship Fund). A certificate, signed by the USFWI President as well as the NC USFW President, is sent to the Circle who submits the name(s) for recognition. Nominations can be made at any time of the year but members are recognized at the Annual Gathering in the fall each year.

Enclose $25.00 per nominee payable to NC USFW and send the form to NC USFW Treasurer Alicia Sharp with your check.

PEACE AND SOCIAL CONCERNS

Esther Creed

If you read the newspaper, listen to the radio, watch TV, or read your email, you receive many messages about our current government and the scary things in store for our country.

Not only is America facing the threat of economic changes and possible ruin, but there continues to be fear caused by terrorist, and the unbelievable changes in store for Israel, God's chosen nation. What should we do with all this information?

First, we can pray. Never stop asking God to have mercy on our nation and time to give the lost in this world more opportunity to hear the gospel.

Secondly, we can be more diligent in spreading the good news of salvation and peace to all we meet. We have the message of light and peace, so let's get started.

We're lights in a dark world. We are engulfed in darkness. Since we have the light, we should not worry, or tremble in fear. We have God's peace.

"Peace I leave you, my peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." John 14:27.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Kim Beeson

Mark 6:30-32 The apostles returned to Jesus and told Him all that they had done and taught. And He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a lonely place and rest a while." For many were coming and going and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away to the boat to a lonely place by themselves.

This season of the calendar year finds us nearing vacation time. Summer holidays are approaching and schools are breaking for the summer. Getaway family time is on the rise which is influenced by schedules and optimal weather.

Some folks may also be seeking respite care for various reasons; this is the category in which I fall. As of late, I have 'went away' to the beach to give my mind and body a rest. The needs of my family have changed immensely in the last 8 months and I find myself longing for a pocket of time to rest a while. I am comforted by Jesus' words He gave his disciples. They had experienced stress and strain when they accepted Jesus' challenges to go out and share His 'good news'. He recognized they needed rest.

There are different types and needs of restful care for each of us and at different times. If this advice was good enough for his apostles, I feel it is sufficient for us as well. I know that I draw great comfort in knowing that my heavenly Father says that resting a while gives us time to recover and then we are ready to continue with our responsibilities.

Additional scripture:

Psalms 23:2-3 in green pastures He make me lie down; to still waters He leads me; He restores my soul.

Matthew 11:28 Come to Me, all who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest.

Genesis 2:2 And on the seventh day, God finished His work that He had done and He rested.

LITERATURE*Sarah Cox*

Our new books have arrived! Many of you picked up your copies at our conference at Quaker Lake. If you didn't get a chance to join us at Quaker Lake, you can call, text or email me to place an order. We have included the book list in this newsletter.

I encourage you to participate in our USFW Reading Program. It is very simple to do. You need to read one book from each category or you can substitute the reading of one of the books with reading the Advocate, attending one of the NCUSFW conferences or hearing a FUM or NC Missionary speak.

When you have completed the requirements, copy the attached form, fill it in and send it to me. The form is due to me by August 1st. You will receive a reading certificate at our USFW conference in the fall. The purpose of the reading program is to help us be better Christians by giving us the opportunity to grow in our faith and in our knowledge.

The profits from the book sales also supports our scholarship program. So, you really have two opportunities; improving yourself and helping our students to improve their lives through education. It's a win, win!

Prayers for a fun and safe summer.

And don't forget to read!

UNITED SOCIETY OF FRIENDS WOMEN INTERNATIONAL READING LIST

“Love in Many Languages”

2025-2026 1 Thessalonians 2:8

FICTION

A Lineage of Grace by Francine Rivers. The Bible is filled with inspiring stories of unlikely candidates that God chose to change eternity. This historical fiction follows the lives of five women, Tamar, Rahab, Ruth, Bathsheba, and Mary, as they lived daring lives and often made big mistakes. Their stories still hold great meaning and guidance for us today. $20

The Forge by Chris Fabry. The Forge is about the power of prayer, the transformation only God can achieve, and the lasting influence one person can have on others. It is the story of a single mom who sees her child drifting away and turns to prayer and God to believe the impossible. This book was recently made into a motion picture and highlights the impact a mother can have on her child’s life. $18

The School Mistress by Tess Thompson. This story, based in the year 1910, follows Quinn Cooper on a train headed West to accept the position of schoolmistress in a small town in Colorado. She faces difficult travel of the day, the task of providing for her family back home, and the responsibility to instruct the children living there. The book is a sweet love story with a mix of mystery. The characters are well-developed and set a good example of kindness throughout the book. $18

The Traveling Prayer Shawl by Jennifer Lynn Cary. A sweet story about letting God heal all our fears, bitterness, and poor decisions. The faith in God and love of family and friends shine in this book. Everyone knows the only way to survive life’s problems is to wrap them in prayer. $16

BIOGRAPHY

Finding Baby Holly by Holly Marie. Finding Baby Holly is the true, inspiring story of a wife and mother who was “missing” for over forty years after her parents’ murders, the persistent detectives who never stopped investigating and the birth family who never lost hope in finding her. It is an incredible story of how powerful faith and family are in your life. $19

Worth Celebrating by Miriam Dixon. This is an unusual book as it is a biography of a book, Celebration of Discipline. The original manuscript was written longhand on a yellow pad in a small Oregon town by a Quaker pastor describing twelve ancient Christian disciplines. This spotlighted the superficiality that had come to characterize Christianity and ignited the spiritual formation movement. This is the story of how a book can change a subculture. $23

Evidence Not Seen by Darlene Deibler Rose. Darlene Deibler Rose was a Christian missionary in Papua New Guinea during and after World War II. During the war, she survived 4 years in a women’s prison camp, her husband did not survive the war. Her Christian faith sustained her during those years. After the war, she remarried and continued her missionary work in New Guinea. $17

The Watchmaker’s Daughter by Larry Loftis. This novel is one of the greatest stories of World War II. Corrie ten Boom, a female Dutch watchmaker, and her family saved the lives of hundreds of Jews – at the cost of their own lives and survival in a concentration camp. She not only survived but forgave her captors and lived the rest of her life as a Christian missionary. Her ability to forgive is a testament of her faith. $22

GROWTH AND CHALLENGE

Everybody Always by Bob Goff. In Everybody Always, Bob shows you the simple truths about life that have the power to shift your mindset. Bob teaches you that the path forward is found in one simple truth: love people, even the difficult ones, without distinction and without limits. Learning to love as Jesus did is something we should all strive to do. $20

God Never Gives Up on You by Max Lucado. Struggling with doubt, insecurities, self-worth? This book will fill you with God's grace. Through the example of Jacob, Max gives us a lesson on God's perfect plan to use imperfect people to do great things. $20

Pray First by Chris Hodges. This book is a guide to revitalizing your prayer life, making prayer a daily priority, and experiencing deeper intimacy with God. No matter what you are doing throughout your day, praying first keeps you tethered to the One who loves you most. To know God at a deeper level you should Pray without ceasing, Pray with other people, and always Pray First! $20

Keep It Shut by Karen Ehman. The average woman speaks over 20,000 words a day – not to mention the ones she types online! Often our words land us in a heap of trouble. This book will help you define gossip, think before you speak, and regard what the Bible teaches us about our speech laced with grace, as sweet as honey, and yet seasoned with salt. $20

BY AND ABOUT QUAKERS

Palestine and Israel: Understanding Encounters by Max L. Carter. This book is a sequel to Max Carter's book "Palestine and Israel: A Personal Encounter," also published by Barclay Press. The first book covered Max's experiences in and about Palestine and Israel from 1970 to 2006. The Sequel draws from his experiences and posts from two dozen trips to the region since then, including the annual Friends United Meeting "Living Letters" service-learning trips that he and his wife Jane lead. $30

Close to the Surface by Bethany Lee. Written by a Quaker pastor, the author recounts her family's story, her own uncertain pilgrimage, and the courage it takes to sail over the horizon and find your way home. The journey is beautifully written. $27

The Quakers by Captivating History. It is always good to know how we started. The Quakers is a great read of the history of the Quakers from pre-colonial America through modern times. It highlights the contributions made to the abolitionist movement, disaster relief and peace movements. $15

Step by Step by Rigaud and Penn. After Brown v. Board of Education was decided in 1954, a group of Black mothers in the small town of Hillsboro, Ohio, marched their children to the white school, demanding admission. After being rejected, they repeated the walk the next morning and every morning after that for two years. During the two years these students were homeschooled by their mothers with the help of a Quaker teacher. This book highlights these elementary students who became activists, even if they did not realize it at the time. $22

CHILDREN AND YOUTH EDUCATION*Pat Core*

It is a beautiful, warm spring day with just enough breeze to remind me of the many ways our Creator provides and cares for each of us. I am waiting for the school bus to drop off one of the passengers who stays with us each afternoon. Soon it will be summer break, and he will no longer be dropped off at our house. Children are looking forward to the summertime. School's out! No more homework! No early wake-ups!

Summer break for students gives them a chance to be involved in outdoor activities, vacation to favorite places, and experience fun with family and friends. Even though there is freedom from academic routines, there are opportunities for skill development by participating in camp programs, public library activities, as well as exploring a variety of hobbies. One of the benefits of summer break is maintaining one's mental health. Our summers seem to be less stressful with less anxiety and more time for fun with family and friends. It is wise to encourage learning despite being out of school. Maintaining a routine is most helpful for school age children.

Safety is an area of concern that adults need to consider when planning activities to keep young ones involved in the summer. Supervision is necessary. Children should understand safe practices around vehicles, grills, and fireworks. Do not forget to protect them from over exposure to the sun, the importance of drinking plenty of water to stay hydrated, and the potential hazards of hot surfaces as well as playground equipment.

Enjoy the "lazy, hazy" days of summer. Remember to always show kindness and have a good attitude as you interact with others.

STEWARDSHIP

Brenda McKinney

According to Wikipedia, Christian stewardship is “the responsibility that Christians have in maintaining and using wisely the gifts that God has bestowed.”

What is God’s definition of stewardship?

“Now fear the Lord and serve Him with all faithfulness....But if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve.... But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord,” Joshua 24:14-15. A very familiar passage that I have seen displayed in several homes.

In the Old Testament, we see many examples of God choosing people to obey and serve – Abraham, Moses, Noah, Gideon, and many others. They chose to serve the Lord albeit sometimes reluctantly. We also must choose to serve the Lord, but how will we serve Him? How is the Holy Spirit leading us in our daily walk?

The most basic way to serve our church is to be present - singing, praising, and worshipping God with our church family. One of the best ways to become more engaged with our church family is to join a small group - a Bible study, a Sunday School class, hospitality committee, choir. We USFW members already serve by promoting and supporting our missions. God has bestowed at least one gift on each of us. We may have more than one “talent” and could choose another activity or committee that interests us and be committed to it. What do you enjoy doing? If I delight in the Lord, what would be the desire of my heart (see Psalms 37:4)? What brings you joy? What makes you feel good about yourself and your ability to be of help to someone else?

The people God chose in the Bible typically felt totally inadequate for the mission. It was their dependence on Him and their commitment to obey that led to their success. Don’t feel inadequate. If the Holy Spirit is nudging you to serve, God will equip you for the task. Choose this day to serve the Lord by serving others. Remember the story of the ten talents. We have a responsibility to use wisely the gifts God has given us.
