“RUDE.
THE MOOD THAT SAVES TIME”

’ So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them...’

-Matthew 7:12

Rudeness. It stretches from short and snappy to the indifference of a cold shoulder. It doesn't need words to convey its message. It sends all sorts of signals but at the front of the pack is a simple, "You're not worth it."

Rudeness has a level of efficiency that is admirable. It cuts unwanted interruptions close to zero. If we have a space we own, like an office, a man cave or a kitchen, people warn each other about not entering when we are in our "rude mood".

What will we do with all that time that we save?

Take an extra week of vacation so that we can be rude to those close to us?

Because it's so effective, the allure of rudeness tempts us to be rude in return. Now we add a layer of stupidity to our selfishness. It's rude to think that we can out-rude rudeness.

This is why Jesus had to tell us about the golden rule. Whether our rudeness is intentional or it's a result of poor training, neither is excusable. Our lack of "other awareness" impacts our relationships. Only as we internalize this impact will we make changes that make others feel cared for.

The golden rule is about more than being nice to each other; it's the core of love. Putting ourselves in the shoes of someone else is exactly why Jesus came to this earth.

He put himself in my place; it cost him his life.

Rudeness puts them in their place. The golden rule puts us in their place. It's not a matter of our perception; the receiver's opinion matters most.

Meet our Missions Ramallah Friends School

In 1869, a 15-year old Palestinian girl named Miriam Karam mustered up the courage to ask two Quaker visitors to Ramallah, Eli and Sybil Jones, to start a girl's school in the area. At that time, no education program existed for women in this region. Before long, a medical mission and boarding school for girls was in place. By 1902, a similar boarding school for boys was created by Friends.

Proverbs, Wisdom & Principles for Better Living

By: William Penn

Quotes on "Religion":

477- "For as men in battle are continually in the way of shot, so we, in this world, are ever within the reach of temptation. And herein do we serve God, if we avoid what we are forbid, as well as do what he commands."

478- "God is better served in resisting a temptation to evil, than in many formal prayers."

479- "This is but twice or thrice a day; but that every hour and moment of the day. So much more is our continual watch, than our evening and morning devotion."

480- "Wouldest thou then serve God? Do not that alone, which thou wouldest not that another should see the do."

Quaker Query

...for January

What is a "Quaker Query"?

Quakers use the term Query to refer to a question or series of questions used for reflection and in spiritual exercises. Friends have used Queries as tools for offering spiritual challenges to the community for much of their history.

Consider this...

Do you take your right share in the service of meetings, realising they are essential for the support and development of our corporate concerns? Do you carry out discipline, when advisable, in a sensitive and Christian manner?

Social Media

Comm-Tech Committee Statement

Hello from your FCNC Comm-Tech Committee!

Many members within FCNC are still unaware that we have a newsletter!

The best way for Friends to stay up to date and aware of news & events is to get connected.

There are 3 great ways to do that:

- 1) subscribe to Bearing Fruit (click HERE)
- 2) follow FCNC's Facebook Page (click HERE)
- 3) join FCNC's Facebook group (click HERE)

Social Media isn't for everyone, and we completely understand, so that's where "Bearing Fruit" is a great option.

But what about those in our Meetings who still haven't heard about or seen the newsletter?

That's where YOU come in!

Pastors, announce to your congregations on Sundays.

Friends, ask your friends if they've seen the newsletter.

Committee leaders, consider printing off copies to hand out to those who are less likely to use technology.

Together, we can get the word out! Thank you for your help
